

Job Description – EYFS SEND Teaching Assistant

Scarisbrick Hall School

MAIN PURPOSE OF JOB:

We are a high-quality independent Nursery dedicated to delivering exceptional Early Years education through innovation, nurture and meaningful outdoor learning. Our provision is rooted in strong relationships, ambitious outcomes and a deep respect for every child's individuality.

We are seeking a skilled and compassionate EYFS SEND Teaching Assistant to provide personalised support within our inclusive learning environment. This role will involve one-to-one support and close collaboration with teaching staff to ensure that every child is empowered to thrive.

You will:

- Support high-quality teaching and learning across the Early Years Foundation Stage
- Deliver tailored interventions to meet individual needs
- Champion inclusive practice and neurodiversity
- Promote independence, resilience and emotional wellbeing
- Contribute to rich indoor and outdoor learning experiences

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Contribute to planning and evaluation of personalised learning programmes
- Monitor and record progress to inform Individual Education Plans
- Provide high-quality pastoral and personal care support where required
- Maintain a stimulating, well-organised and safe learning environment
- Build strong partnerships with families
- Engage fully in staff development and professional learning
